Dubai: Things to Do and See

Dubai's new landmark Burj Khalifa is comfortably the highest building of any type in the world; see the world from 124th floor of the building. Resembling the shape of a dhow sail Burj al Arab, this luxury hotel is unmistakably perched out from the stunning Jumeirah Beach.

Discover real thrills and excitement at one of the largest water parks in the Middle East - a new addition to Dubai's long list of world-class attractions and located next to the Atlantis Hotel on the Palm Jumeirah.

Only 20 minutes from Dubai city centre, Wild Wadi World has 30 exciting rides within 12 acres of fun. One of the attractions of the park is that it caters for all ages and inclinations.

For a city that already boasted some of the most impressive malls you could find anywhere, the arrival of Dubai Mall, the world's largest by area, has taken the mall experience to a new level. Located near the base of Burj Khalifa, it is a destination in its own right with around 1,200 shops and a choice of entertainment options that could occupy you for a week, including an ice rink, an aquarium, an underwater zoo, a two-storey indoor Sega theme park and over 150 dining options.

The most exciting thing to do in Dubai is Wadi Bashing. It is all about driving through the desert wadis in a four wheeler - an exhilarating experience indeed.

Golfing in Dubai is an activity loved by golfers all over the world. The country has countless golf courses set amidst landscaped greens, and replete with all international facilities.

If you are someone with aquatic inclinations, you have the choice of a variety of water sports in Dubai. Try your hand at scuba diving in Dubai, and explore the enigmatic world underneath azure blue waters of the sea. You can also enjoy surfing, fishing or water skiing in Dubai.

For those who want to touch the skies, Dubai presents numerous adventurous options & activities. You can hop into a hot air balloon and have a view of the Dubai skyline from a great height. Or, try your hand at bungee jumping in Dubai - the thrill of 'falling' from the skies will be etched in your memories forever.

If you are fascinated by desert sands, you should undertake Dubai desert safaris and also go desert skiing in Dubai. It'll be one of the most mesmerizing experiences of your life.
